

September 2016

*El Pueblo
de
Los Angeles*

Friday, September 16th

Fiestas Patrias Special Cultural Entertainment. | 11:00 am - 5:00 pm | Plaza Kiosko

Saturday, September 17th & Sunday, September 18th

All Access Entertainment presents “Mexican Independence Weekend Festival” with children’s workshops & entertainment, arts & crafts displays, and live musical performances. | 12:00 pm - 8:00 pm both days | Plaza Kiosko, Los Angeles Street and Main Street

Sunday, September 25th

“Latinos Living Healthy: Feria de Salud” Health Fair with health screenings and information presented by The League of United Latin American Citizens LULAC | 11:00 am -6:00 pm | Monument Wide

** EXHIBIT: Friday, September 1st – Friday, September 30th ****

El Pueblo de Los Angeles Historical Monument presents “Forgotten Founders: The Hidden African Ancestry of Los Angeles.” Original exhibition presented by The National Parks Conservation Association, California State University Northridge, Western National Parks Association, and The Huntington-USC Institute of California and the West. The exhibition highlights the extraordinary racial and ethnic diversity of Los Angeles from its founding to the present day. | Tuesdays – Sundays 10:00 am – 3:00 pm | El Tranquilo Gallery & Information Center

All event dates and times are subject to change. Additional events may be added.